

Lavender Festival Friday – Sunday Schedule

	Music			Farm Events	Crafts	Colonial Events	Food Events
10:00	Olde Tyme Country	Olympic Mountain Cloggers	Old Time Fiddlers	All-Day Events  Beekeeping Demonstrations Beehives located near the craft vendors  4-H Displays (Sat/Sun) Animals & displays located near the lavender still	Craft Tents are located along the white fence beside the lavender field  U-Pick Lavender $5 a bundle  Make Your Own Lavender Wreath ♦ $12 for supplies ♦ continuous all day  Make Your Own Lavender Wand ♦ $12 for supplies ♦ begins at 30 minutes past the hour  Kid-Friendly Crafts (adults can participate too!) $5 each or all 5 for $20 ♦ Fill an autographed souvenir sachet bag with lavender ♦ Make your own envelope sachet ♦ Stitch a colonial-style sachet packet ♦ Complete a treasure hunt for a free scoop of ice cream ♦ Make your own lavender-filled Christmas ornament	Immerse yourself in colonial village life and watch period artisans at work.
10:30
11:00
11:30		Chamber Music Directed by Dewey Ehling
Noon	No live music due to battle in field			Photo-Ops in the Lavender Field Borrow a “fancy” hat and/or vintage frame for a classic photo in the lavender field.
12:30	Olde Tyme Country	Chamber Music Directed by Dewey Ehling	Toot Sweet	Essential Oil Distillation Demonstration		Immerse yourself in colonial village life and watch period artisans at work.
1:00
1:30	Rainshadow Ringers		Olympic Mountain Cloggers
2:00
2:30	No live music due to battle in field			All-Day Events Continue
3:00	Olde Tyme Country	Old Time Fiddlers	Brass Band from Sequim City Band	Essential Oil Distillation Demonstration		Immerse yourself in colonial village life and watch period artisans at work.
3:30
4:00
4:30	Rainshadow Ringers						Army of the Columbia Fife and Drum
5:00
5:30				All-Day Events Continue			Cooking Demonstration (outside the gift shop) Learn techniques for using lavender in cooking and baking